Responsibility for providers' content

MY WALL3T enables businesses, associations, organisations and other providers to make their own content available via the platform.

This may include, in particular:

- provider profiles,
- offers,
- vouchers and coupons,
- tickets and events,
- bonus programmes,
- permitted memberships,
- messages and information, and
- other digital content.

The respective provider is identifiable in the relevant content or via the associated provider profile.

As a rule, the respective provider is responsible for content posted by that provider.

Where a provider's goods or services are offered via MY WALL3T, MY WALL3T does not, as a rule, become a party to a contract concluded between the user and the respective provider. Payments for goods or services are not processed via MY WALL3T.

Reporting illegal content

Illegal or allegedly illegal content can be reported using the reporting function provided in MY WALL3T.

Alternatively, such notices can be submitted electronically to the following email address:
support@mywall3t.net

A report should identify the content concerned as precisely as possible and explain in a comprehensible manner why it is considered illegal.

Consumer dispute resolution

Unless a statutory obligation exists in an individual case, W3B Solutions GmbH is neither obliged nor willing to participate in dispute resolution proceedings before a consumer arbitration body.

Mandatory statutory information obligations in connection with a specific consumer dispute remain unaffected.

Note on journalistic and editorial content

Under its current configuration, W3B Solutions GmbH does not offer any journalistic or editorial content of its own via MY WALL3T.

This version therefore does not provide for the designation of a person responsible pursuant to § 18(2) MStV.

Messages, information or other content made available by providers via MY WALL3T are content of the respective identifiable provider.
